BREEBAART, A Legacy of Cultural Fusion

For 45 years, our brand has been a testament to the beautiful marriage of French elegance and Panamanian artistry. It began with the vision of French designer H el ene Breebaart, who, upon arriving in Panama, was profoundly inspired by the country's rich cultural and artisanal heritage, particularly the vibrant "molas" of the Guna people.

A Pioneer in Panamanian Fashion

H el ene Breebaart became a pioneer, being the first designer to showcase Panamanian craftsmanship on prestigious international catwalks. Her designs were not only visually stunning but also deeply rooted in a commitment to empowering Guna women, with whom she collaborated closely.

Preserving a Cherished Legacy

Following H el ene Breebaart's passing in 2021, her legacy continues through her dedicated team. We are committed to upholding her vision and maintaining the brand's standard of excellence. Today, we proudly present our collection of 100% linen shirts, each adorned with the exquisite handcrafted "molas" of Guna women. Inspired by H el ene's original designs, these pieces are a heartfelt tribute to her talent and passion for Panamanian culture.

Fashion as an Expression of Identity

At Breebaart, we believe fashion transcends trends; it is a powerful form of cultural expression. Each shirt in this collection is a unique work of art, meticulously crafted by Panamanian hands, allowing us to honor our roots and celebrate the beauty of our country.

HELENE BREEBAART

BREEBAART, Un Legado de Fusión Cultural

Durante 45 años, nuestra marca ha sido un testimonio del hermoso matrimonio entre la elegancia francesa y la maestría artesanal panameña. Comenzó con la visión de la diseñadora francesa Hélène Breebaart, quien, al llegar a Panamá, se sintió profundamente inspirada por la rica herencia cultural y artesanal del país, particularmente por las vibrantes "molas" del pueblo Guna.

Una Pionera en la Moda Panameña

Hélène Breebaart se convirtió en una pionera, siendo la primera diseñadora en exhibir la artesanía panameña en prestigiosas pasarelas internacionales. Sus diseños no solo eran visualmente impactantes, sino que también estaban profundamente arraigados en un compromiso con el empoderamiento de las mujeres Guna, con quienes colaboró estrechamente.

Preservando un Legado Apreciado

Tras el fallecimiento de Hélène Breebaart en 2021, su legado continúa a través de su dedicado equipo. Estamos comprometidos a mantener su visión y preservar el estándar de excelencia de la marca. Hoy, presentamos con orgullo nuestra colección de camisas 100% lino, cada una adornada con las exquisitas "molas" hechas a mano por mujeres Guna. Inspiradas en los diseños originales de Hélène, estas piezas son un sincero tributo a su talento y pasión por la cultura panameña.

La Moda como Expresión de Identidad

En Breebaart, creemos que la moda trasciende las tendencias; es una poderosa forma de expresión cultural. Cada camisa de esta colección es una obra de arte única, meticulosamente elaborada por manos panameñas, lo que nos permite honrar nuestras raíces y celebrar la belleza de nuestro país.

HELENE BREEBAART

This collection is inspired by the eternal beauty of the heliconia flower, a symbol of vibrant femininity and natural elegance.

This tropical plant was painted and reproduced several times by the brand's founder, Helene Breebaart.

This capsule that we will present will be in light linens, with feminine shapes, embellished by the artisanal work of indigenous Guna women. Every woman who wears one of these exclusive pieces will feel like a muse surrounded by nature, joy and strength without ever losing elegance.

Helene Breebaert Panamá unveils its latest collection, Metamorphosis, a poignant exploration of love, loss, and the enduring power of human connection. Inspired by the profound sorrow of Creative Director Sophie Breebaert following the passing of her husband, the collection is a testament to the transformative nature of grief and the ultimate triumph of love. Building upon the brand's legacy of exquisite craftsmanship and the intricate hand embellishments of the Guna Indians, Metamorphosis reimagines the iconic butterfly as a symbol of love's metamorphosis. From the chrysalis of sorrow, emerges a creature of beauty and hope, representing the transformative power of love that endures beyond life.

The collection's color palette of black and white, while reflecting the complexities of grief, also symbolizes the yin and yang of love – the light and dark, the giving and receiving. The garments, crafted primarily from luxurious linen with accents of silk, exude a sense of ethereal elegance, mirroring the delicate balance between fragility and strength that defines love. Sophie Breebaert's vision for Metamorphosis is to celebrate the profound impact of love on the human spirit. By sharing her personal journey through fashion, she hopes to inspire others to cherish the love in their lives and find solace in its enduring power.
